

VOCES8

Thursday 21 June 2018 at 7.30pm

Taking time out from their busy international touring schedule we are delighted to welcome VOCES8 back to Shaldon. One of the world's most exciting and versatile vocal groups, their concert repertoire will once again range across the centuries - from Renaissance music to jazz and pop arrangements.

For those who missed their concert in 2015 you are in for a treat: eight voices blending perfectly together and performing to the highest degree of technical perfection, but also with engaging personalities which bring a quality of 'heart' or emotion to their performance.

Tickets £15 (£5 for students)

Chetham's School of Music

Friday 22 June 2018 at 7.30pm

Friday's concert provides a showcase for gifted young musicians who are aspiring to become tomorrow's professionals. Back for a sixth appearance at the Shaldon Festival, we welcome young musicians from Chetham's School of Music in Manchester, the largest specialist music school in the UK.

These talented students will present a varied programme of ensemble and solo pieces, accompanied by Brenda Blewett. Come and share their enthusiasm and talent in what promises to be a memorable evening of music making.

Tickets £12 (£5 for students)

Shaldon Festival Choir

Saturday 23 June 2018 at 7.30pm

Directed by Stephen Threlfall

As the culmination of a choral workshop day, Stephen Threlfall, Director of Music at Chetham's School, Manchester, will conduct the choir in a performance of Rossini Petite Messe Solennelle.

He will be joined by four outstanding soloists: Héloïse West (Soprano) Rebecca Smith (Contralto) Matthew Wilding (Tenor) and James Quilligan (Bass) with expert accompaniment from Peter Adcock on piano and Paul Morgan on organ.

Tickets £7

Fibonacci Sequence

Sunday 24 June 2018 at 7.30pm

Making their debut at the Shaldon Festival, the Fibonacci Sequence is considered to be one of the UK's most distinguished chamber ensembles garnering impressive reviews. The ensemble members appear at the world's leading festivals and venues and many of them are also on the faculties of leading conservatoires in the UK and abroad.

With a programme ranging from a string duo through to piano quintet, they start with Dvorak's delightful Romances for two violins and viola, continue with the contrasting moods and styles of Danish composer Halvorsen's Passacaglia for violin and cello, on to the stormy and passionate Mozart Piano Quartet in G minor and finish with the dramatic and epic Brahms Piano Quintet in F minor. A gala concert to close our Festival.

Tickets £15 (£5 for students)

SHALDON FESTIVAL 2018

Registered Charity No: 1118828

Shaldon celebrates its 29th Classical Music Festival from 21 - 24 June at St Peter's Church. The Festival was the inspiration of Eileen Croxford Parkhouse, cellist wife of David Parkhouse. It began in 1990 as a memorial concert to celebrate the life of her husband, an internationally renowned concert pianist, who was born in Teignmouth and lived latterly in Shaldon.

Festival Choral Workshop

Rossini: Petite Messe Solennelle. Stephen Threlfall will direct the traditional Saturday Choral Workshop. For singers who would like to take part, there is an online booking option at www.shaldonfestival.co.uk or telephone Ann Pardoe 01626 873709.
